STRANGE STORY

David Lamar Admits Impersonating Public Men.

BEARER OF SEVERAL NAMES

Tale of Misrepresentation, Impersonation and Organized Attempts to Influence Wall Street Financiers Is Recounted by Prosperous Looking Man With the Utmost Unconcern.

Washington, July 3.—A story of misrepresentation, impersonation of public men and organized effort to influence Wall street financiers, probably without parallel in the history of the congressional investigation, was unfolded before the senate lobby committee.

A prosperous looking, self-possessed individual, calling himself David Lamar of New York, self-described as an "operator in stocks," and admittedly the bearer of several assumed names, was the principal in the remarkable session.

With entire abandon he told of the impersonations, his participation in attempts to influence Wall street operations and his association with Edward Lauterbach, a New York lawyer, in efforts to have Lauterbach retained by the Morgan firm, the Union Pacific and other great interests to head off congressional activity in Washington.

He telephoned to financial men and lawyers in the names of Representative Palmer and Representative Riodan. He assumed the guise of Chairman McCombs of the Democratic national committee to telephone to Chairman Hilges of the Republican national committee.

Morgan Lawler Testifies.

Lewis Cass Leydard of New York, counsel for the Morgan firm, was one of his attempted victims. Mr. Leydard came to the witness stand armed with almost a verbatim account of all the conversations held with Lamar, who had represented himself as Congressman Palmer.

As he read the record of the conversations, in themselves unusual in their tone, Lamar, sitting near by, laughed and nodded, saying: "That's right," and slapping his hands with apparent enjoyment.

The purpose of his impersonations, Lamar contended, was to obtain re-statement for his friend, Edward Lauterbach, in the good graces of the Morgan firm.

Members of the committee demanded that Lamar remain in Washington for re-appearance. Edward Lauterbach, who recently testified before the committee, was recalled from New York by telegraph and Henry B. Martin, a local man who has figured as head of the "Anti-Trust league," was also subpoenaed to appear.

Lamar declared he prepared the re-statement for the Stanley investigation of the steel trust; that it was given to Martin, who gave it to Congressman Stanley.

Subsequently he said it was introduced in the house by Mr. Stanley with but a few "technical changes" from its original form.

Paved Way for Lauterbach.

Lamar paved the way for Lauterbach to call upon Leydard, according to the testimony given by Leydard and corroborated by Lamar.

In an interview Feb. 8, 1913, between Leydard and Lauterbach, the latter declared he came direct from Senator Stone, who represented Speaker Clark; and that he had a proposal to make to the Morgan interests for the holding off the congressional activity against the steel corporation.

Sensor Stone took the stand before Leydard had finished and denounced the whole thing as a "malicious fabrication" and a "common lie."

Members of the senate committee agreed in the belief that it was a fabrication and Lamar laughingly clinched the matter by breaking in and admitting there was no truth in the allegations.

Paul D. Cravath, one of the attorneys for the Union Pacific, and Maxwell Everts, counsel for the Southern Pacific, testified briefly as to their experiences with the telephone impersonator.

During his testimony Lamar interjected an attack upon the Union Pacific, claiming there had been a falsification in the books of the company in 1901 by which nearly $80,000,000 had disappeared from its surplus.

Mr. Cravath immediately denied his term "Lamar a liar" a characterization which the committee insisted should be withdrawn. Cravath declared the attack had been expected or several days as a part of bear raid to depress the value of the stock for speculative purposes.

Falling From a Horse.

Knowing how to fall from a horse is an art, and it is here that a professional rider or an amateur who is in daily practice has a big advantage over one who gets on a horse's back occasionally. The one may fall as often as the other, but the professional will be uninjured, while the occasional will probably need an ambulance.

ON ABE LINCOLN

Veteran Precipitates Free Fight in Gettysburg Hotel.

SEVEN MEN ARE WOUNDED

Old Soldier Defends Martyred President and Berates His Detractors—Knives Used in Melee and Several of the Injured Are in a Serious Condition.

Gettysburg, Pa., July 3.—Seven men were stabbed in a fight in the dining room of the Gettysburg hotel as a result of a fight which started when several men aroused the anger of an old veteran in blue by abusing Lincoln.

Several of the wounded men are in a serious condition at the Pennsylvania state hospital. The state constabulary are making efforts to find the men who did the stabbing.

The wounded men are Edward J. Carroll, sergeant-at-arms of the quartermaster's corps, U. S. A.; David Farber of Butler, Pa., a member of the state constabulary; John D. Maugin, Harrisburg; Malcolm Griffin of Redford City, Pa.; Charles Susler of West Fairview, Va.; Hayder Renisbecker, Gettysburg, and Harry A. Root, Jr., Harrisburg.

Farber, Maugin and Griffin are in the most serious condition. Their wounds were in the left breast and the surgeons at the Pennsylvania state hospital would not predict as to their chance of recovery.

Fight Begins Suddenly.

According to the authorities the fight started suddenly and was over in a few minutes. It began when the dining room was full and caused a panic among guests.

The veteran, who was unbent and disappeared in the melee, was sitting near Farber and Carroll when he heard the slighting remarks about Lincoln.

He jumped to his feet and began to defend the martyred president and berated his detractors. The men who were stabbed jumped to the defense of the veteran when the others closed in. Knives were out in a second and the room was thrown into an uproar.

The fight spurred the medical men again to an effort to have the Gettysburg saloons closed during the remainder of the celebration.

The constabulary later arrested a man who gave the name of W. B. Henry and said his home was in Camden, N. J., as one of the men concerned in the affray. They believe that more than one man was responsible.

Rain Brings Relief.

A roaring storm swept down out of the Blue Ridge over the plateau of Gettysburg, bringing needed relief to thousands of veterans in blue and gray, who have sweated for four days in an atmosphere that is dangerous in a city of 50,000 old and weary men.

For more than a half hour the rain came pouring down upon the sun cracked and wind swept encampment ground. It charged with violent thundering over the ground that Pickett covered in '63. Its salvos of thunder were like the booming of guns of Meade and Lee, but the thermometer dropped with wonderful agility and the lightning cleared the air of its humidity.

In the vanguard of the storm was a wind that eddied the dust in clouds, blinded the veterans and made the thoughtful scurry for their tents to lash them down. They showed they hadn't forgotten the old days, for not a tent was blown over, so far as reports showed, and not a veteran was injured.

Comparatively few veterans appeared to listen to the steelmaking and to hear the hands play "Turkey in the Straw." "Old Black Joe" and other well known military airs.

Colonel Andrew Cowan of Louisville, Ky., acted as presiding officer and he told several stories that brought smiles to the lips of his hearers.

GARY SILENT ON DEPARTURE

Chairman of Steel Corporation Leaves for Europe.

New York, July 3.—Chairman E. H. Gary of the United States Steel corporation sailed for Europe. A number of years ago he made it his custom to give to the Wall street news association before departing on his summer vacation an interview which contained some optimistic reference to the steel trade outlook.

He broke that custom and declined to make any statement. Wall street was disappointed.

Bars Government Employees.

Washington, July 3.—The interstate commerce commission ruled that "officers and employees of the Panama railroad are government employees and not entitled to free passes from other railroads."

SULZER CLAIMS BLACKMAIL

Calls Breach of Promise Suit Frameup of Boss Murphy.

Gettysburg, Pa., July 3.—Governor Sulzer issued an interview in connection with the suit for breach of promise filed against him in Philadelphia. "Yes," said Governor Sulzer, "I read about that Hopkins frameup in Philadelphia. There's nothing to it that I am afraid of. The whole thing looks like a poor conspiracy and seems stale and fishy."

"The fact is, the suit of this Hopkins woman is blackmail," went on the governor, "and more of it is instigated by my political enemies and is part of the plot of Boss Murphy and his political conspirators to discredit me, because they cannot use me for their nefarious schemes to loot the state of New York."

ONE LINE REFUSES TO PAY SHIPPERS

Chicago Great Western Will Fight Minnesota Rates.

St. Paul, July 3.—A. G. Briggs and S. W. Burr, attorneys for the Chicago Great Western, conferred with Attorney General Smith as to the methods to be pursued by the company in fighting the rate case. Because of the death of J. A. Humbird, the stockholder-plaintiff in the injunction proceedings, another will be substituted for him. Mr. Briggs and Mr. Burr told Mr. Smith that they intended to ask for a modification of the injunction to allow the company to establish the state rates now, although they will insist on having them declared confiscatory in order to escape the payment of the $300,000 in refunds due shippers.

The action of the Chicago Great Western in refusing to subscribe to the agreement entered into by the other roads operating in Minnesota to pay refunds on excess charges during the period of rate litigation came as a distinct surprise to state officials.

Attorney General Smith, when asked what course the state will pursue, intimated that it means a retrial of the entire rate case with the Chicago Great Western as a defendant.

COMES TO CULLOM'S RESCUE

Salary of Memorial Commissioner Is Paid From Surplus.

Washington, July 3.—Comptroller of the Treasury Downey came to the rescue of former Senator Shelby M. Cullom who, although appointed by congress as a special resident commissioner of the Lincoln memorial commission at an annual salary of $5,000, has not received a cent of pay since he took the oath of office March 5.

Comptroller Downey authorized the payment of Mr. Cullom's services from the $300,000 appropriated as the first in the erection of the $2,000,000 Lincoln memorial in the sundry civil bill signed by President Wilson a few days ago.

Medical Society Rejects Request to Test His Alleged Cure.

Berlin, July 3.—The Berlin Medical Society rejected by an overwhelming majority the request of Professor Ludwig Schleich, associate of Dr. Friedmann F. Friedmann, that the society appoint a committee of four to test the Friedmann vaccine for tuberculosis in any way which might appear to it most advisable.

The decision of the society was greeted with cries of "Bravo!"

Found Guilty of Grafting.

New York, July 3.—Peter J. Duffy, a former police sergeant, was found guilty by a jury of having accepted money from a Harlem gambler in return for granting immunity from police interference. The jury returned its verdict after deliberating eight hours.

PUSHING ALONG
POSTAL WORK

Commission Busy on Good Roads For Rural Routes.

BOURNE'S FINANCIAL PLAN.

Oregon Senator Thinks Commissions Accomplish Best Results For Legislation—Overman Tired of Lobby Quiz—Wants to Get Through—Not Much Diplomacy in Midsummer.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, July 3.—[Special.]—Ever since the last congress ended a commission composed of three members of each house has been working on postal matters, particularly as regards railway mail pay and good roads for rural routes. Three members from each house, I said, but the work has really been carried on by former Senator Bourne of Oregon, who has been devoting his time to these subjects without pay.

Bourne has reached some conclusions about the government during this time. In the first place, he is emphatic in his belief that we have the best form of government ever devised by man for the human race. "But it must be vitalized," he says. "It must be made to carry out the wishes of the people." Then he would have a few changes made, one of which would take from the president the power of nominating officers of the federal government serving in the different states. The power of the president is too great, made so by patronage, is the opinion of Bourne.

Commission Work.

Bourne has also concluded that the best results for legislation can be obtained by commissions composed of congressmen, who can bring about practical working laws. Therefore he is convinced that the commission of which he is a member will bring about an adjustment of railway mail pay, second class rates of postage and finally will present a practical plan for the improvement of the roads of the country by federal aid.

For the latter plan Bourne has evolved a financial scheme which contemplates the return of the money paid by the federal government after a period of fifty years which may satisfy the consciences of those who are a bit squeamish on account of states' rights.

Wants to Get Through.

Senator Overman, chairman of the lobby investigating committee, has had enough. He would like to get through with it as soon as possible. He wants to give everybody a chance to be heard, and he doesn't really care how much evidence goes into the record of the case if they will only push it along rapidly.

It has rather amused members of the committee to see senators rush in with bills to suppress the lobbyists, especially when it is expected that the special committee will recommend legislation and probably prepare a bill. They know that some one is seeking to have a little of the advertising that is going about.

No Summer Diplomacy.

Diplomacy is the most accommodating thing in public affairs. When the weather becomes hot it shuts up like a clam. There is never summer diplomacy. The diplomats go away, and the men who talk to diplomats usually depart. Oh, but these grave questions which keep the best and high priced men on government payrolls is easily adjustable to climatic conditions! There seems to be no diplomatic tangle that cannot be straightened out or postponed when dog days approach.

Not For James.

Always there will be the question of abandoning military posts in different states where they do not seem best located for military purposes, and always there will be a fierce protest by congressmen representing the states. "It's not for me to dip into that matter," remarked James Hay, chairman of the house military committee. "I may have votes enough to put such a proposition through the house, but it would go against a stone wall in the senate. The power is with the secretary of war. That's what I have told the department."

Lane's Surmise.

"In closing," said Senator Lane toward the end of a speech of not more than half an hour in the senate, "and I know that you will be glad to hear that I am soon to close, for I have heard of senators who talk a full hour and a half in this body."

And what he said afterward was lost in real laughter, for of all places where long winded speeches are heard, or, rather, spoken, the senate has every other place "skinned a mile." Lane never looked more serious in his life, but everybody realized that he was poking fun at the august body of which he is a member.

Ayres' Ambition.

Former Congressman Ayres of the Bronx, New York, wants to come to congress again and frankly states his ambition. "When I come back here again," he said, "I am going to introduce a bill appropriating $100,000 to erect a statue to the great god Bank."

Ayres had just been talking about various matters which have been up permost in the public mind in Washington.

Miss Wilson is twenty-four years old and was educated at Goucher college, Baltimore, and specialized in political science.

ROOSEVELT PLEADS
FOR LARGER NAVY

Progressives Have Conference at Newport, R. I.

Newport, R. I., July 3.—Baked clams and battleships, oratory, both patriotic and political, and a drill of naval apprentices were combined in the navy day program of the national Progressive conference.

Mr. Roosevelt's navy speech was a plea for the maintenance of adequate naval strength. He declared that in international relations the only safe course for the American people was "to combine absolute courtesy and justice toward other nations which that preparedness for which is the only sure means of averting war."

In his second address the colonel discussed Progressive politics, quoted from the party's platform of last year and said that this declaration of principles would be recognized in the future as one of the great triumphs in American political history.

Former Senator A. J. Beveridge of Indiana discussed conservation, monopoly and tariff.

The speech of B. F. Fridge, Progressive national committeeman from Mississippi, was both personal and resentful.

Bulgarians Issue What Is Regarded as Ultimatum.

SIMILAR LETTER TO GREECE

Hope of Averting War Among the Balkan States Is Rapidly Disappearing—Greece Accuses Bulgaria of Making Treacherous Attack. Fighting Continues on Large Scale.

London, July 3.—Any remaining hope of averting a Balkan war is rapidly disappearing. Bulgaria has sent warning notes to Serbia and Greece demanding a cessation of all aggressive movements within twenty-four hours. These notes are regarded as tantamount to an ultimatum.

A Belgrade dispatch via Paris announces that the king of Serbia is presiding at a council which is expected to decide to declare war on Bulgaria.

Greece, in notes to Bulgaria and the powers, justifying her action, accuses Bulgaria of treacherously attacking the Greeks and Serbians, in order to seize important territories and so place herself in an advantageous position in the coming negotiations for a settlement of the Balkan differences.

In the meantime fighting continues according to Serbian advice, on a heavy scale and the king of Greece, with his staff, has left Saloniki for the front to direct the operations personally.

The representatives of the powers at all the Balkan capitals are urgently pressing the respective governments not to allow unfortunate occurrences to drag them into war.

TAKE BULGARIANS PRISONERS

Servian Army Headquarters Reports Successes.

Belgrade, July 3.—Army headquarters report that the Servians after capturing Istip pursued the enemy, capturing over 100 officers and 1,000 men.

Press dispatches say sanguinary fighting has occurred at Ovtchepalye, where the Bulgarian losses were enormous. In this engagement 2,000 Servians were killed and wounded.

According to the best information here the battle line extended from Kotehana, Istip and Strumitz toward Gueghel and thence onward to the Gulf of Orfani.

Unconfirmed dispatches report further heavy fighting in the Istip district, in which the Servians were compelled to abandon their fortified positions at the town of Istip and leave behind their wounded.

Fifty-four officers, including four colonels, were among the killed, while the losses on both sides numbered several thousand.

MORE SMOKING AND DRINKING

Large Increase in Use of Beer, Whisky and Tobacco.

Washington, July 3.—The American people drank more whisky and beer, smoked more cigars and cigarettes and chewed more tobacco during the fiscal year 1913 than in any other yearly period of the nation's history, according to estimates based upon the record breaking internal revenue receipts of the federal government for the twelve months ended June 30.

The drinkers of the country consumed 143,300,000 gallons of whisky and brandy, an increase of 7,500,000 gallons over the previous year.

Sixty-four million, five hundred thousand barrels of beer flowed down the throats of lovers of the amber brew, exceeding 1911's great record by more than 1,000,000 barrels.

Smokers puffed into space 7,707,000 cigars and 14,012,000,000 cigarettes. This was 217,000,000 cigars and 2,790,000,000 cigarettes more than ever before had been consumed in a single year.

Patrons of the pipe smoked 403,200,000 pounds of tobacco, or 9,400,000 pounds more than the consumption of 1912. Chewers of snuff likewise held their own, disposing of 32,200,000 pounds, an increase of more than 3,000,000 pounds over the previous year.

Tale of Misrepresentation, Impersonation and Organized Attempts to Influence Wall Street Financiers Is Recounted by Prosperous Looking Man With the Utmost Unconcern.

Washington, July 3.—A story of misrepresentation, impersonation of public men and organized effort to influence Wall street financiers, probably without parallel in the history of the congressional investigation, was unfolded before the senate lobby committee.

A prosperous looking, self-possessed individual, calling himself David Lamar of New York, self-described as an "operator in stocks," and admittedly the bearer of several assumed names, was the principal in the remarkable session.

With entire abandon he told of the impersonations, his participation in attempts to influence Wall street operations and his association with Edward Lauterbach, a New York lawyer, in efforts to have Lauterbach retained by the Morgan firm, the Union Pacific and other great interests to head off congressional activity in Washington.

He telephoned to financial men and lawyers in the names of Representative Palmer and Representative Riodan. He assumed the guise of Chairman McCombs of the Democratic national committee to telephone to Chairman Hill of the Republican national committee.

Morgan Lawler Testifies.

Lewis Cass Ledyard of New York, counsel for the Morgan firm, was one of his attempted victims. Mr. Ledyard came to the witness stand armed with almost a verbatim account of all the conversations held with Lamar, who had represented himself as Congressman Palmer.

As he read the record of the conversations, in themselves unusual in their tone, Lamar, sitting near by, laughed and nodded, saying: "That's right," and slapping his hands with apparent enjoyment.

The purpose of his impersonations, Lamar contended, was to obtain reinstatement for his friend, Edward Lauterbach, in the good graces of the Morgan firm.

Members of the committee demanded that Lamar remain in Washington for reappearance. Edward Lauterbach, who recently testified before the committee, was recalled from New York by telegraph and Henry B. Martin, a local man who has figured as head of the "Anti-Trust league," was also subpoenaed to appear.

Lamar declared he prepared the resolution for the Stanley investigation of the steel trust; that it was given to Martin, who gave it to Congressman Stanley.

Subsequently he said it was introduced in the house by Mr. Stanley with but a few "technical changes" from its original form.

Paved Way for Lauterbach.

Lamar paved the way for Lauterbach to call upon Ledyard, according to the testimony given by Ledyard and corroborated by Lamar.

In an interview Feb. 8, 1913, between Ledyard and Lauterbach, the latter declared he came direct from Senator Stone, who represented Speaker Clark; and that he had a proposal to make to the Morgan interests for the holding off the congressional activity against the steel corporation.

Senator Stone took the stand before Ledyard had finished and denounced the whole thing as a "malicious fabrication" and a "common lie."

Members of the senate committee agreed in the belief that it was a fabrication and Lamar laughingly clinched the matter by breaking in and admitting there was no truth in the allegations.

Paul D. Cravath, one of the attorneys for the Union Pacific, and Maxwell Everts, counsel for the Southern Pacific, testified briefly as to their experiences with the telephone impersonator.

During his testimony Lamar interjected an attack upon the Union Pacific, claiming there had been a falsification in the books of the company in 1901 by which nearly $80,000,000 had disappeared from its surplus.

Mr. Cravath immediately denied his, terming Lamar a "liar" a characterization which the committee insisted should be withdrawn. Cravath declared the attack had been expected or several days as a part of bear raid to depress the value of the stock for speculative purposes.

SEVEN MEN ARE WOUNDED

Old Soldier Defends Martyred President and Berates His Detractors—Knives Used in Melee and Several of the Injured Are in a Serious Condition.

Gettysburg, Pa., July 3.—Seven men were stabbed in a fight in the dining room of the Gettysburg hotel as a result of a fight which started when several men aroused the anger of an old veteran in blue by abusing Lincoln.

Several of the wounded men are in a serious condition at the Pennsylvania state hospital. The state constabulary are making efforts to find the men who did the stabbing.

The wounded men are Edward J. Carroll, sergeant-at-arms of the quartermaster's corps, U. S. A.; David Farber of Butler, Pa., a member of the state constabulary; John D. Mauglin, Harrisburg; Malcolm Griffin of Redford City, Pa.; Charles Sussler of West Fairview, Va.; Hayder Renisbecker, Gettysburg, and Harry A. Root, Jr., Harrisburg.

Farber, Mauglin and Griffin are in the most serious condition. Their wounds were in the left breast and the surgeons at the Pennsylvania state hospital would not predict as to their chance of recovery.

Fight Begins Suddenly.

According to the authorities the fight started suddenly and was over in a few minutes. It began when the dining room was full and caused a panic among guests.

The veteran, who was unhurt and disappeared in the melee, was sitting near Farber and Carroll when he heard the slighting remarks about Lincoln.

He jumped to his feet and began to defend the martyred president and berated his detractors. The men who were stabbed jumped to the defense of the veteran when the others closed in. Knives were used in a second and the room was thrown into an uproar.

The fight spurred the medical men again to an effort to have the Gettysburg saloons closed during the remainder of the celebration.

The constabulary later arrested a man who gave the name of W. B. Henry and said his home was in Camden, N. J., as one of the men concerned in the affray. They believe that more than one man was responsible.

Rain Brings Relief.

A roaring storm swept down out of the Blue Ridge over the plateau of Gettysburg, bringing needed relief to thousands of veterans in blue and gray, who have sweated for four days in an atmosphere that is dangerous in a city of 50,000 old and weary men.

For more than a half hour the rain came pouring down upon the sun cracked and wind swept encampment ground. It charged with violent thundering over the ground that Pickett covered in '63. Its salvos of thunder were like the booming of guns of Meade and Lee, but the thermometer dropped with wonderful agility and the lightning cleared the air of its humidity.

In the vanguard of the storm was a wind that eddied the dust in clouds, blinded the veterans and made the thoughtful scurry for their tents to lash them down. They showed they hadn't forgotten the old days, for not a tent was blown over, so far as reports showed, and not a veteran was injured.

Comparatively few veterans appeared to listen to the speechmaking and to hear the bands play "Turkey in the Straw," "Old Black Joe" and other well known military airs.

Colonel Andrew Cowan of Louisville, Ky., acted as presiding officer and he told several stories that brought smiles to the lips of his hearers.

GARY SILENT ON DEPARTURE

Chairman of Steel Corporation Leaves for Europe.

New York, July 3.—Chairman E. H. Gary of the United States Steel corporation sailed for Europe. A number of years ago he made it his custom to give to the Wall street news association before departing on his summer vacation an interview which contained some optimistic reference to the steel trade outlook.

He broke that custom and declined to make any statement. Wall street was disappointed.

Bars Government Employees.

Washington, July 3.—The interstate commerce commission ruled that "officers and employees of the Panama railroad are government employees and not entitled to free passes from other railroads."

SULZER CLAIMS BLACKMAIL

Calls Breach of Promise Suit Frameup of Boss Murphy.

Gettysburg, Pa., July 3.—Governor Sulzer issued an interview in connection with the suit for breach of promise filed against him in Philadelphia. "Yes," said Governor Sulzer, "I read about that Hopkins frameup in Philadelphia. There's nothing to it that I am afraid of. The whole thing looks like a poor conspiracy and seems state and fishy."

"The fact is, the suit of this Hopkins woman is blackmail," went on the governor, "and more of it is instigated by my political enemies and is part of the plot of Boss Murphy and his political conspirators to discredit me, because they cannot use me for their nefarious schemes to loot the state of New York."

ONE LINE REFUSES TO PAY SHIPPERS

Chicago Great Western Will Fight Minnesota Rates.

St. Paul, July 3.—A. C. Briggs and S. W. Burr, attorneys for the Chicago Great Western, conferred with Attorney General Smith as to the methods to be pursued by the company in fighting the rate case. Because of the death of J. A. Humbird, the stockholder-plaintiff in the injunction proceedings, another will be substituted for him. Mr. Briggs and Mr. Burr told Mr. Smith that they intended to ask for a modification of the injunction to allow the company to establish the state rates now, although they will insist on having them declared confiscatory in order to escape the payment of the $300,000 in refunds due shippers.

The action of the Chicago Great Western in refusing to subscribe to the agreement entered into by the other roads operating in Minnesota to pay refunds on excess charges during the period of rate litigation came as a distinct surprise to state officials.

Attorney General Smith, when asked what course the state will pursue, intimated that it means a retrial of the entire rate case with the Chicago Great Western as a defendant.

COMES TO CULLOM'S RESCUE

Salary of Memorial Commissioner Is Paid From Surplus.

Washington, July 3.—Comptroller of the Treasury Downey came to the rescue of former Senator Shelby M. Cullom who, although appointed by congress as a special resident commissioner of the Lincoln memorial commission at an annual salary of $5,000, has not received a cent of pay since he took the oath of office March 5.

Comptroller Downey authorized the payment of Mr. Cullom's services from the $300,000 appropriated as the first in the erection of the $2,000,000 Lincoln memorial in the sundry civil bill signed by President Wilson a few days ago.

SCORN FRIEDMANN AT HOME

Medical Society Rejects Request to Test His Alleged Cure.

Berlin, July 3.—The Berlin Medical Society rejected by an overwhelming majority the request of Professor Ludwig Schleich, associate of Dr. Friedrich E. Friedmann, that the society appoint a committee of four to test the Friedmann vaccine for tuberculosis in any way which might appear to it most advisable.

The decision of the society was greeted with cries of "Bravo!"

Found Guilty of Grafting.

New York, July 3.—Peter J. Duffy, a former police sergeant, was found guilty by a jury of having accepted money from a Harlem gambler in return for granting immunity from police interference. The jury returned its verdict after deliberating eight hours.

PUSHING ALONG POSTAL WORK

Commission Busy on Good Roads For Rural Routes.

BOURNE'S FINANCIAL PLAN.

Oregon Senator Thinks Commissions Accomplish Best Results For Legislation—Overman Tired of Lobby Quiz—Wants to Get Through—Not Much Diplomacy In Midsummer.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, July 3.—[Special.]—Ever since the last congress ended a commission composed of three members of each house has been working on postal matters, particularly as regards railway mail pay and good roads for rural routes. Three members from each house, I said, but the work has really been carried on by former Senator Bourne of Oregon, who has been devoting his time to these subjects without pay.

Bourne has reached some conclusions about the government during this time. In the first place, he is emphatic in his belief that we have the best form of government ever devised by man for the human race. "But it must be vitalized," he says. "It must be made to carry out the wishes of the people." Then he would have a few changes made, one of which would take from the president the power of nominating officers of the federal government serving in the different states. The power of the president is too great, made so by patronage, is the opinion of Bourne.

Commission Work.

Bourne has also concluded that the best results for legislation can be obtained by commissions composed of congressmen, who can bring about practical working laws. Therefore he is convinced that the commission of which he is a member will bring about an adjustment of railway mail pay, second class rates of postage and finally will present a practical plan for the improvement of the roads of the country by federal aid.

For the latter plan Bourne has evolved a financial scheme which contemplates the return of the money paid by the federal government after a period of fifty years which may satisfy the consciences of those who are a bit squeamish on account of states' rights.

Wants to Get Through.

Senator Overman, chairman of the lobby investigating committee, has had enough. He would like to get through with it as soon as possible. He wants to give everybody a chance to be heard, and he doesn't really care how much evidence goes into the record of the case if they will only push it along rapidly.

It has rather amused members of the committee to see senators rush in with bills to suppress the lobbyists, especially when it is expected that the special committee will recommend legislation and probably prepare a bill. They know that some one is seeking to have a little of the advertising that is going about.

No Summer Diplomacy.

Diplomacy is the most accommodating thing in public affairs. When the weather becomes hot it shuts up like a clam. There is never summer diplomacy. The diplomats go away, and the men who talk to diplomats usually depart. Oh, but these grave questions which keep the best and high priced men on government payrolls is easily adjustable to climatic conditions! There seems to be no diplomatic tangle that cannot be straightened out or postponed when dog days approach.

Not For James.

Always there will be the question of abandoning military posts in different states where they do not seem best located for military purposes, and always there will be a fierce protest by congressmen representing the states. "It's not for me to dip into that matter," remarked James Hay, chairman of the house military committee. "I may have votes enough to put such a proposition through the house, but it would go against a stone wall in the senate. The power is with the secretary of war. That's what I have told the department."

Lane's Surmise.

"In closing," said Senator Lane toward the end of a speech of not more than half an hour in the senate, "and I know that you will be glad to hear that I am soon to close, for I have heard of senators who talk a full hour and a half in this body."

And what he said afterward was lost in real laughter, for of all places where long winded speeches are heard, or, rather, spoken, the senate has every other place "skinned a mile." Lane never looked more serious in his life, but everybody realized that he was poking fun at the august body of which he is a member.

Ayres' Ambition.

Former Congressman Ayres of the Bronx, New York, wants to come to congress again and frankly states his ambition. "When I come back here again," he said, "I am going to introduce a bill appropriating $100,000 to erect a statue to the great god Bunk." Ayres had just been talking about various matters which have been up in the public mind in Washington.

MISS WILSON TO BE BRIDE

Engagement of President's Second Daughter Announced.

Washington, July 3.—The president and Mrs. Wilson announced the engagement of their second daughter, Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, to Francis Bowes Sayre of Lancaster, Pa. The wedding is expected to take place next November at the White House. Mr. Sayre is at present an attorney in the office of District Attorney Whitman of New York.

Mr. Sayre is twenty-eight years old and, after preparing at the Hill school at Pottstown, Pa., and Lawrenceville, N. J., graduated from Williams college in 1909.

Miss Wilson is twenty-four years old and was educated at Goucher college, Baltimore, and specialized in political science.

ROOSEVELT PLEADS FOR LARGER NAVY

Progressives Have Conference at Newport, R. I.

Newport, R. I., July 3.—Baked clams and battleships, oratory, both patriotic and political, and a drill of naval apprentices were combined in the navy day program of the national Progressive conference.

Mr. Roosevelt's navy speech was a plea for the maintenance of adequate naval strength. He declared that in international relations the only safe course for the American people was "to combine absolute courtesy and justice toward other nations which that preparedness for which is the only sure means of averting war."

In his second address the colonel discussed Progressive politics, quoted from the party's platform of last year and said that this declaration of principles would be recognized in the future as one of the great triumphs in American political history.

Former Senator A. J. Beveridge of Indiana discussed conservation, monopoly and tariff.

The speech of B. F. Fridge, Progressive national committeeman from Mississippi, was both personal and reminiscent.

HOUSE MAY PROBE LOBBY

Resolution May Be Reported Out Next Saturday.

Washington, July 3.—A sweeping investigation of the lobbying charges made by Martin M. Mulhall, involving members of the house, will be authorized by the house, probably on Saturday.

After two hours of heated discussion the house referred the matter to the rules committee, with instructions to report out a resolution giving a committee broad inquisitorial powers to probe the matter.

St. Louis, July 3.—Four persons were killed and three seriously injured in an automobile accident on the Olive street road near Creve Coeur lake.

All are members of the same family, one of the wealthiest and most prominent socially in the city.

The dead are: Mrs. David Sommers, Mrs. Alberta Drey, her mother; Dorothy Sommers, five years old; Blanche Marlee Sommers, seven months old. Mrs. Sommers was considered one of the most beautiful women in the city. She was a social leader and a motor enthusiast.

ENGINEER KILLED.

St. Louis, July 3.—When the Missouri Pacific train from St. Louis to Kansas City was wrecked near Berge, Mo., Engineer Benjamin Meyers was caught and crushed to death. His fireman suffered serious injuries and it is reported that many passengers were hurt when a day coach turned turtle.

SENDS WARNING NOTE TO SERBIA

Republican Leader Mann Threatens Filibuster.

Washington, July 3.—Representative Kahn's resolutions to have the house call upon Attorney General McReynolds for all the papers in the Camenetti-Diggs white slave cases and Western Fuel company prosecutions were reported out with the recommendation that they be tabled because Mr. McReynolds already had complied with the request.

Republican Leader Mann served notice on the house that he intended to filibuster unless opportunity were offered for discussion of the case.

SHOOTING IN COURT.

Tampa, Fla., July 3.—In the county court here E. E. Green of Sylvania, Ga., drew a revolver and fired three times at W. E. Maddox, who was receiving a preliminary hearing on a charge of assaulting Hazel Oliver, thirteen years old, a niece of Green. The shots went wild. Green was disarmed and jailed.

Bulgarians Issue What Is Regarded as Ultimatum.

SIMILAR LETTER TO GREECE

Hope of Averting War Among the Balkan States Is Rapidly Disappearing—Greece Accuses Bulgaria of Making Treacherous Attack. Fighting Continues on Large Scale.

London, July 3.—Any remaining hope of averting a Balkan war is rapidly disappearing. Bulgaria has sent warning notes to Serbia and Greece demanding a cessation of all aggressive movements within twenty-four hours. These notes are regarded as tantamount to an ultimatum.

A Belgrade dispatch via Paris announces that the king of Serbia is presiding at a council which is expected to decide to declare war on Bulgaria.

Greece, in notes to Bulgaria and the powers, justifying her action, accuses Bulgaria of treacherously attacking the Greeks and Serbians, in order to seize important territories and so place herself in an advantageous position in the coming negotiations for a settlement of the Balkan differences.

In the meantime fighting continues according to Serbian advice, on a heavy scale and the king of Greece, with his staff, has left Saloniki for the front to direct the operations personally.

The representatives of the powers at all the Balkan capitals are urgently pressing the respective governments not to allow unfortunate occurrences to drag them into war.

TAKE BULGARIANS PRISONERS

Servian Army Headquarters Reports Successes.

Belgrade, July 3.—Army headquarters report that the Servians after capturing Istip pursued the enemy, capturing over 100 officers and 1,000 men.

Press dispatches say sanguinary fighting has occurred at Ovtchepale, where the Bulgarian losses were enormous. In this engagement 2,000 Servians were killed and wounded.

According to the best information here the battle line extended from Kotehana, Istip and Strumitz toward Guevgheli and thence onward to the Gulf of Orfani.

Unconfirmed dispatches report further heavy fighting in the Istip district, in which the Servians were compelled to abandon their fortified positions at the town of Istip and leave behind their wounded.

Fifty-four officers, including four colonels, were among the killed, while the losses on both sides numbered several thousand.

MORE SMOKING AND DRINKING

Large Increase in Use of Beer, Whisky and Tobacco.

Washington, July 3.—The American people drank more whisky and beer, smoked more cigars and cigarettes and chewed more tobacco during the fiscal year 1913 than in any other yearly period of the nation's history, according to estimates based upon the record breaking internal revenue receipts of the federal government for the twelve months ended June 30.

The drinkers of the country consumed 143,300,000 gallons of whisky and brandy, an increase of 7,500,000 gallons over the previous year.

Sixty-four million, five hundred thousand barrels of beer flowed down the throats of lovers of the amber brew, exceeding 1911's great record by more than 1,000,000 barrels.

Smokers puffed into space 7,707,000,000 cigars and 14,012,000, they will spend several days in the northern part of the state, visiting Itasca state park before their rethe guests of Miss Donna Lyeon.

The regular meeting of the board of county commissioners will be held on July 14, the second Monday of the month. This and the January meeting, so designated by state law, are the only regular meetings of the board. All other meetings are adjourned ones. On July 21 the board will meet as a county board of

Harry Armstrong, of Duluth, secretary of the National Iron company, was in Brainerd Wednesday accompanied by his wife and daughter. He has engaged a cottage at Hackensack and after an outing there will also visit in Brainerd. In an interview he referred to the street railway and said it would be a good thing for Brainerd and that Duluth was taking great interest in the project.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Britton entertained last evening at their home, 1206 south Park street, in honor of their son, Robert. The occasion was his 23rd birthday. An elaborate supper was served at 8:30. The dining room was beautifully decorated with ferns and white carnations. After an evening of music and conversation, ice cream and cake was served. The guests departed about 11:00 o'clock, all voting a most delightful time and wishing many happy returns of the day.

F. E. Kinney, of Garrison, was in the city last night on his way home from Little Falls where he went to participate in the G. A. R. encampment. He says there are more old soldiers registered at the Little Falls meeting than at any he ever attended. Mr. Kinney was a former Brainerd citizen and for some years followed the newspaper business. Since he moved out into the Mille Lacs lake country he has improved in health and his youth is returning. Nothing like the Minnesota lake resorts for long life and prosperity.

A Pretty Home Wedding

The Sunday Journal, of Portland, Oregon, contains the following account of the Smith-Stout wedding under date of June 22, a copy of which has just been received. In addition to the write-up the paper contains a half tone of the bride, and also of her bridesmaid, Miss Winnifred Cole. The paper says:

Miss Eloise Smith and Fred E.
Stout were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Frances Smith, Wednesday evening by Rev.
Dr. John Simpson of St. Mark's Episcopal church. There were about 30 friends and relatives present for the wedding, which was an unusually pretty affair. Harold E. Smith, a brother of the bride, gave her away.
Miss Winnifred Cole of Minneapolis, who is a house guest at the Smith home, was her only attendant.
Lowry Smith of Brainerd, Minn., was the best man.

The bride, who is a handsome blond, was charmingly gowned in ivory white charmeuse draped effectively with old Florentine lace. She wore a long veil of tulle hanging to the hem of her court train. It was fashioned at the head with a cap of old point lace in Juliet effect, with a band of pearls holding it in place.
She carried a beautiful shower bou-quet of white sweet peas, lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern.

Miss Cole was attired in light green charmeuse draped with shadow lace, which was caught up with pink rose buds. She carried an arm bouquet of pink rose buds.

Miss Jean Latimer played on the piano during the ceremony.

A supper followed the services,
when Mrs. Hugh Latimer and Miss Nellie Hill presided in the dining room. The table was very prettily arranged with a basket of pink sweet peas.

In the living room an altar of palms with marguerites and lighted candles was arranged for the wedding party.

Mrs. Smith wore violet charmeuse with a Spanish lace drape. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Wednesday evening for their home in Brainerd, Minn.
They went by way of the Canadian Pacific, and have planned a delicious canoe trip on Vermillion lake in Minnesota for their honeymoon.

COUNCIL FAVORS THE FRANCHISE

President Lagerquist Believes a Majority Want the Street Railway on Fair Conditions

REID GOING ABOUT IT RIGHT

He Will Attend Council Meeting Monday Night and Answer Questions of Aldermen

C. A. Lagerquist, president of the council and acting mayor, came in from Nisswa last night to help in the completion of preparations for Brainerd's great Fourth of July celebration tomorrow, and incidentally to ascertain public sentiment with regard to the street railway franchise in Brainerd which is being sought by the Minnesota Central Railway company.

The acting mayor said to the Dispatch this afternoon: "Public sentiment seems to be almost unanimously in favor of the granting of a franchise for a street car line in Brainerd to the Minnesota Central Railway company. I believe that a majority of the members of the council are in favor of granting the franchise upon terms which will safeguard the city's interests in every way. George Reid, the promoter of the company, is not attempting to rush a franchise through. He is going about things in the right way. We have asked him to attend the meeting of the council on next Monday night, in order to get a general outline of what his company proposes to do for Brainerd and to answer any questions that the members of the council may ask. This may be called a get-together meeting for an exchange of views and as a starting point from which to work."

"There can be no question that an electric line serving Brainerd and connecting it with towns on the northern end of the range possesses many advantages for this city. As I understand it the Minnesota Central Railway company has a charter from the state permitting it to construct lines in every county in the state and into adjoining states."

Brainerd is the geographical center of the state and the logical point for the nucleus of what will be in time a great electrical railroad system with lines radiating in various directions from Brainerd. Such a railroad system will be of tremendous value in the building up of this city and deserves the support of every citizen, having always in view, of course the safe-guarding of the best interests of Brainerd in the framing of the franchise."

Judge McClenahan Adjourns Court to August 11 When the Court Cases Will be Taken up

The first jury to report under the five-sixth law brought in a verdict in the district court, Judge W. S. McClenahan presiding, at nine o'clock this morning, the ten men awarding Judge J. T. Hale, of Deerwood, $1,500 damages because of condemnation of part of his country estate on Reno lake for Cuyuna Northern railway company purposes.

Under the law a jury must be out 12 hours to return less than a unanimous verdict. The law took effect July 1. The jury was out all night and the 12 hours were up at 5:49 this morning. At nine o'clock they reported. George Ridley was the deputy in charge of the jury.

Judge W. S. McClenahan adjourned court to August 11, at which time the court cases numbering twenty will be taken up. The juries were excused. The untired jury cases were continued to the next term.

This May term of court has been the longest the county has had in years and pending the trial of court cases is still uncompleted. It shows in concrete manner that court work grows with development of the district.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Grand

The feature picture at the Grand for Thursday, Friday and Saturday is "The Sea Dog." This two reel story is a unique one, dealing entirely with dramatic incidents. Old Jabez Blunt, a retired sea captain, has fitted up a house like a ship, and lives with his faithful old mate, Bill Squeers. The rough old men are always quarreling, while holding a deep affection for each other.

Blunt's daughter, whom he has not seen for many years, has married a minister, and she has a little boy. The Rev. Clayton has been doing missionary work in China, and secures the pulpit in Blunt's town. The boy falls in love with his grand-dad, and the two become chums. Clayton tries to persuade Alice to keep the boy away, but discontinues upon seeing that it pains her to think of breaking up the friendship between her father and her son. There is consternation when the boy uses swear words before company and the minister takes a firm stand.

It is planned to send the boy away to Clayton's mother for a while, so the old man's feelings will not be hurt. The boy, however, hears the talk and rushes to Blunt and tearfully tells him the whole story.

Blunt's pride is touched, and he decides to go away and study etiquette. Amusing scenes are shown of Blunt and Squeers.

Little Jim worries his head about his granddad, and is taken violently ill. In his delirium he keeps calling for the old man, and Clayton is compelled to telegraph Blunt, pleading with him to make all haste home.

The crisis in the boy's condition is approaching as Blunt comes into the room and drops at the bedside with tears streaming down his face. The little eyes open slowly and look blankly around till they spy the feet of the old man. With a scream of joy the little arms are clasped about Blunt's neck—and the child's life is saved.

At the Empress

For Thursday and Friday and Saturday a big feature show in the Empress is "The Circle of Fate." The plot follows:

The husband has an ungovernable temper. He stormily leaves the house and lighting his pipe, tosses the burning match into a pile of brush. The flames spread and soon the little cabin is ablaze, making a prisoner of the wife. While the man visits the tavern, the woman bravely fights for her life and finally succeeds in escaping by the window.

Rushing away in terror, the wife falls exhausted and is picked up by a passing stagecoach. In the course of the journey the horses take flight and the coach is wrecked.

The plainsmen witness the accident and rescues the young woman, whom he tenderly bears to his mother's cottage.

The young man falls in love with the strange woman, but one day he discovers her wedding ring and finds that a barrier stands in the way of his happiness. He hears her story and determines to locate the husband and bring him back.

After a weary search the plainsmen finds the husband and prevails upon him to visit his wife. Again the ungovernable temper brings disastrous results and this time the man forfeits his life. Time, the leveller of all things, brings final happiness to the young woman, who finds a devoted helpmate in the plainsmen.

"His Mother's Son," a Biography drama showing the influence of a termagant's ill temper on the home. The hardships of earning an existence for the family made it impossible for the mother to approve the little pretty things which her daughter liked but later the sturdy stock of his mother showed in him and the cozy home he provided for dad and sister made them forget the past. Following the above there will be a good rip-roaring laughing comedy.

In a well matched game Sunday the Speedwells showed their old time form by defeating the N. P. Truckers 3 to 2. The battery for the Truckers was D. This game made a total of 5 won and 1 lost for the Speedwells.

Paddy had been telling the story of a big pike he caught, too big to get into the boat, so that he had to be towed behind (with the gaff in him). Then followed this dialogue: "What weight, Paddy?" "Divvil a know I know, but he was an oush baste." "Was that the biggest you ever saw, Paddy?" Then Paddy gave a description of the biggest he ever saw. "What weight, Paddy?" "Sorra a bit I know. He was a terror." "How big, Paddy?" "Sure, I can't tell to a foot or two, but a man could walk down his throat." On this, incredulity; but Paddy "clinched" the matter and silenced all controversy" by adding, "Wid his hat on."—Exchange.

TO MEET AT DULUTH
Minnesota State Music Teachers' Association in Annual Session July 9, 10 and 11

The Minnesota State Music Teachers' association holds its twelfth annual meeting in Duluth on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, July 9, 10 and 11. The headquarters and place of meeting will be the Spalding hotel.

The coming convention at Duluth is one of greater interest than any that has yet been held. The exceptionally energetic work of the Duluth committee on arrangements promises the most enjoyable week possible, and the round tables and concerts will prove of the greatest interest. With all of these social and discursive features all are pleasantly familiar.

But there is this year a new spirit in the association's work—a spirit of inquiry and of musical investigation; a sense that the association is now standing for something it has never been able consciously and definitely to stand for before; a realization that the association at last has an opportunity of going before the public as an organization not merely for the academic discussion of musical problems but as a conscious force toward the establishment, as a profession, of what has been until now, too often the mere business of music teaching.

No musician at all in touch with the course of events can have failed to realize that there is an immense development of interest in the serious aspects of music; in theory and history; in the study of music, not simply as a species of amusement, but as an intellectual and cultural activity correlative with the rest of our progress in science and art. The plan of examination established last year by the association has been one of the influences in arousing interest.
